Power your adventures with the BLUETTI AC180: a robust 1,800W solar generator compatible with 100W-500W panels, perfect for running appliances like mini-fridges, power tools, and laptops on camping trips, outdoor work, or during power outages.

I am thinking about installing a pair of solar panels on the balcony. The German legislation allows up to 600 W generation without any contracts (hopefully soon uped to 800W). So I would rather start backwards, with HA, and find an inverter model that can easily be integrated, than fight high and low to integrate whatever solution I already bought.
