

Since you're going to ship a container to Grenada, the best option could be air or sea freight. Air cargo is the fastest mode of transportation but also the most expensive. The cost of moving a container through air freight will depend on the weight of your cargo. That's why if you're relocating a container overseas, ocean freight hauling is ...

This is a grenade inspired by the Grenade container (the threading is similar but I don't think they are interchangeable) and the modern Swedish hand grenades SHGR90 and SHGR2000 hence I call it SHGR95. Apart from the design of the grenade body the big difference is that my handle can fly off completely.
