

What are the main sources of energy in the Marshall Islands?

MEC,KAJUR,the College of the Marshall Islands and the University of the South Pacific,all carry out capacity building in support of energy activities. Most of the primary energy supply (90%) comes from petroleum,with biomass used for cooking accounting for nearly all the rest.

Why is the Republic of the Marshall Islands reliant on external assistance?

Since independence,the Republic of the Marshall Islands (RMI) has been heavily reliant on external assistance,with grants averaging 60% of gross domestic product (GDP). Like other island nations in the Pacific,the RMI suffers from high and volatile fuel priceswhile lacking any known fossil fuel reserves of its own.

Why did the Marshall Islands declare a state of economic emergency?

In 2008, the Marshall Islands experienced unprecedented increases in the costs of imported petroleum fuel and staple-food items. The global price surge forced our government to declare a state of economic emergency, with the nation no longer able to pay for the imported diesel required to generate power.

Should a modular solar system be financed by the Marshall Islands Development Bank?

The preferable scenario in the RMI would be to create a standardised modular design prequalified for financing by the Marshall Islands Development Bank. Any requirement for a detailed technical review of a proposed installation is thereby eliminated. That way, home owners or solar PV installers will know in advance exactly what will be installed.
