This "solution" sounds like it would create exactly the same problems that the creation of Israel caused. Taking a large refugee population, migrating them all en masse to an existing inhabited area, giving that land to the newcomers at the expense of displacing the natives, and then granting the newcomers statehood while ignoring legitimate rights of the existing inhabitants.

Singapore doesn't even have enough power to influence Batam, talk what Israel Palestine ... Irony is some Muslim leaders in Middle East have let go of that and recognized Israel and try to move towards two state solutions yet some here in Southeast Asia call for complete destruction of Israel ... please left no stone unturned this time round.
