

Why have solar panels been installed in St Martin's Parish Hall?

St Martin's Parish Hall and its adjoining outside toilet block have had solar panels installed as part of a push to move away from using electricity from the grid, officials said. The installation formed part of ongoing refurbishment projects across the parish and was the first of its kind on the island, they added.

Will St Martin be the first parish to commit to solar power?

In a joint statement, they said: "We felt it was our responsibility to reduce our carbon footprint and this is a great day for St Martin to be the first parish to commit to solar power and to do our little bit for the environment." It comes as works are ongoing to refurbish the hall, meeting room, library and offices.

Why did St Martin get a new tax meter?

The installation formed part of ongoing refurbishment projects across the parish and was the first of its kind on the island, they added. St Martin constables said the change would also work towards "reducing rates" for taxpayers.

The French (northern) part of the island, Saint-Martin, has beaches and forest-covered hills formerly belonged to the French overseas department of Guadeloupe but attained separate status as an overseas collectivity of France in 2007. Tourism developed rapidly in the late 20th century, and Saint-Martin is now a major Caribbean tourist destination.

Saint Martin's seeks to create a sense of belonging and empowerment among all students, staff, and faculty. Inclusion truly exists when historically excluded persons see themselves as valued members of the community, who can shape and redefine the campus culture in significant and meaningful ways.
